

We at The Crisis Project take GDPR extremely seriously, both for the sake of our volunteers and individuals who are nominated for a letter.

Volunteers have the power to withdraw their consent to be contacted by us at any time, and can email crisisprojectuk@gmail.com in order to have their contact details deleted from our systems.

The data of nominees is deleted either

- a) As soon as the nominee acknowledges receipt of their letter
- b) One week after the letter has been sent to them

Nominees will not be further contacted after their letter of gratitude has been sent.

We will ONLY use email addresses in order to contact you directly regarding this project and your data will not be used for marketing purposes, nor will it be shared with any third-party providers. Only the administration team of The Crisis Project will have access to data.

You can contact us with any queries at crisisprojectuk@gmail.com. All volunteers and nominees whose details are currently stored will be informed in the event of any changes to this policy.
